

Good Harbor Vineyards

Late Harvest Riesling, 2009

Michigan

Variety Composition: 90% Riesling, 10% Vidal

Alcohol: 11%

PH: 2.99

TA: .82

Aged: 100% Stainless Steel

Nose: Bushels of white peaches are abundant in the aroma along with subtle hints of petrol and flint, which are classic Riesling characteristics.

Palate: Juicy, ripe nectarines envelope your palate and are preceded by an essence of pineapple. The wine was fermented in stainless steel to ensure bright fruit flavors. This also helps preserve the great natural acidity that Riesling possesses.
